Why Apply to Become an FCI Scholarship Fellow?

Scholarship Fellows will be provided with the following opportunities and support:

- Time: Scholarship fellows will receive 3 hrs. of release time to complete their research project (with structured meetings and milestones to support their work).
- Support & Resources: The Fellows program kicks-off with a planning retreat involving mentors internal and external to Park. Fellows will be provided with guiding resources/texts and will craft a structured approach to reaching their research milestones and goals.
- Mentoring: Scholarship Fellows will be partnered with an external research mentor for a minimum of 1 coaching session per term (4 total); the Center will also connect Fellows with external peer-reviewers and journal editors who can provide additional insight into the academic publishing process.
- Community: Fellows will share their research project progress (and challenges) through presentations to the Park community (1 per term, 4 total), to help formally prepare their work and to also receive valuable feedback and discussion from Park University colleagues.
- Recognition: Fellows will include this work as part of their professional development plan (PDP), earn a digital badge/certificate, and be featured faculty among the Park community.
