

SPECIAL ISSUE: FCI FELLOWS IMPACT

2023 FELLOWS SHARE OUT

On April 21st (10:30am-12:00pm, CST), the FCI Fellows will share the impact their Special Interest Group (SIG) made within the Park community and their experience during their fellowship. The Teaching Innovation Fellows include Dr. Heather Strafaccia, Dr. Jennifer Whitley, and Dr. Patricia Ryberg, who each explored an innovative teaching and learning topic and led a small cohort of 8-12 faculty members to dive deeper into their special interest group topic. Scholarship Fellows include Dr. Stacy Yeager-Okosi and Dr. Stephen David Grover who will share their experience working with an external mentor and the progress on their scholarly articles. Please feel free to watch the videos below or join the interactive session on April 21st to celebrate our fellows and their work!

Zoom Link (Meeting ID: 912 9535 5255)

TEACHING & SCHOLARSHIP FELLOWS' RECORDINGS

Going Beyond the Basics: Developing the Whole Student

Heather Strafaccia, Teaching Fellow

Faculty Actively Fostering a Sense of Belonging

Jennifer Whitley, Teaching Fellow

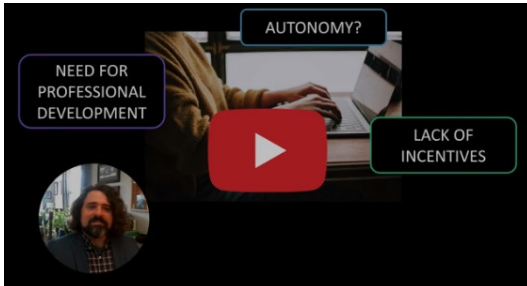

Experiential Learning Experiences

Patricia Ryberg, Teaching Fellow

Adjunct Faculty's Perceptions of Their Confidence After Onboarding

Stacy Yeager-Okosi, Scholars Fellow

Using Course Design to Enable Instructor Presence

David Grover, Scholars Fellow

To learn more about the programs and resources offered through FCI, please visit the FCI website.

©2023 Park University Faculty Center for Innovation. All rights reserved.
8700 NW River Park Drive, Parkville, MO 64152
(816) 584-6770 -- innovatepark.org

You received this email because you are a Park University instructor or administrator.