

SPECIAL ISSUE: MODULE 5 ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION

MODULE 5 ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION NEXT WEEK

Come join Sandra Abbey from the Gilbert Campus in Arizona for our last Teaching Essentials Roundtable Discussion! On May 26th at 7:30pm CST, we'll connect and collaborate on Module 5: Using Student and Peer Feedback to Improve Teaching.

The Teaching Essentials Roundtable Discussions are a one-time opportunity this spring to discuss the modules of FCI's Teaching Essentials Certification with fellow Park instructors. Although the Teaching Essential Roundtable Discussions are coming to an end, all instructors are still encouraged to participate, and the Teaching Essentials modules will continue to remain available. Each module takes less than 20 minutes to complete and can be accessed here.

We're looking forward to seeing you all next Wednesday evening! To participate, just complete Module 5: Using Student and Peer Feedback to Improve Teaching HERE and join us at 7:30pm CST via Zoom (JOIN HERE).

(Note. To view all Teaching Essentials information, including recordings and resources of roundtable discussions, please visit the Teaching Essentials Certification webpage HERE.)

View the recording from the previous roundtable discussion focusing on Module 4:
Providing Effective Feedback here.

©2021 Park University Faculty Center for Innovation. All rights reserved.
8700 NW River Park Drive, Parkville, MO 64152
(816) 584-6770 -- innovatepark.org

You receive this email because you are a Park University instructor or administrator.